

RECREATIONAL BOATING COMMUNITY DAY

Saturday, April 18th 2009

Presented by the Greater Cleveland Boating Association

First annual meeting that will combine INFORMATIONAL, LEGISLATIVE, and ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES facing the recreational boater in the Great Lakes region. Open to all boaters and public.

The event is free and the only cost is for the luncheon and beverages.

Serving the boating community for over 63 years

Conference schedule:

- 9:00 – 9:15am: Assemble in the Ampitheather
- 9:15 – 10:30am: “Crossing the Lake and Borders”
Department of Homeland Security
US Customs & Immigrations
- 10:30 – 11:00am: Break
- 11:00 – 11:30am: Ohio’s on the water Alcohol Awareness campaign “Sober Boater”
Adam J. Prokop
Northern Region Manager
ODNR Division of Watercraft
- 11:45 – 1:00pm: Luncheon
Keynote Speaker
To be announced soon

Bring the following information and get your I-68 permits processed that day from US Immigrations.

- Three passport photos (per person)
- Valid form of identification
- Cash or money order

Location: Doubletree Hotel Cleveland South
6200 Quarry Lane
Independence, OH 44131
(440) 871-6000

I-77 & Rockside Rd.

9:00 – 10:30 Coffee & Juice for Morning sessions

Luncheon: Family Style Deli Bar
Ham, Turkey, Roast Beef,
Deli Cheeses, Assorted Breads,
Rolls and Condiments, Pickles
Marinated Vegetable Salad
Coffee, Tea, Iced Tea, and Soft Drinks

Cost: $22.50 per person

Tables can be made available for your organization to display information. Call GCBA headquarters for more information at (216) 889-9621

With your only cost being lunch, there is a no better time to attend then now.

Deadline for Lunch reservations is April 14, 2009

Name: _____

Address _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip code: _____

Boating Association (if any): _____

Number attending: _____ X $22.50 per person(for lunch) _____

Please send Check or money order payable to GCBA

Mail to: GCBA
3782 W. 128th St.
Cleveland, OH 44111
Questions: Ph # (216) 889-9621